CITY IN BRIEF.
During the past week 18,890 persons were paid pensions at the office in this city, the total aggregating nearly $900,000.
Rev. T. De Witt Talmage will lecture at Plymouth Church on Wednesday evening.
The lecture is given under the auspices of the Indianapolis Lecture Course.
The Military Carnival will open on Tuesday evening and continue during the week.
The admission to the carnival ball on Thursday night will be fifty cents instead of $1, as heretofore reported.
We are requested by E. F. Claypool to state that the article in Saturday's News informing the public that he expected to sell his stock in the First National Bank of this city and retire from the Vice Presidency of the bank, is unauthorized and untrue, and that no such action has been considered.
"Ole Hoss" in Hard Luck.
An old white cur dog with a face that is calculated to stop an eight-day clock, being covered with scars and bruises, took up with Romeo Johnson some time ago when that gentleman was on the reportorial staff of the Journal. Mr. Johnson named the canine "Ole Hoss," and wherever Romeo went his newly acquired friend was sure to go. Before "Ole Hoss" had been in the Journal sanctum many days it became apparent that he was a very peculiar dog. Whenever anybody called him instead of going to him as most dogs who possess an ounce of brains would, he invariably went in the other direction.
In the event that the individual calling him was at him to chase him out of the room, "Ole Hoss" always ran up to him and nobly he could induce him to leave.
When Romeo took a position on the News "Ole Hoss" felt bad and since then he remained away from the Journal a great portion of the time. He was observed at the Union Depot last night covered with coal dust, minus a portion of one ear and had the appearance of a dog weary of life here below. He evidently wanted to run against one of the cold, hard-looking sandwiches reposing on the depot lunch counter, for it was with a longing eye that he gazed upon them. Mr. Johnson will provide some means of support for "Ole Hoss" unless he desires to see him carted off to the Poor Farm.

MARY SADDLER'S DEATH
Results in the Arrest of a Colored Quack for Criminal Practice.

On Saturday morning an unknown man went to Watson's drug store to telephone for an undertaker to come and take charge of the remains of a woman at 115 Hosbrook street. His manner aroused the suspicion of Dr. Watson, and Coroner Stratford was notified and steps were immediately taken for an investigation of the matter. He soon learned that the woman was Mary Saddler, white, aged thirty-five years, and that she had died from the effects of drugs and medicines administered to her. She was formerly a resident of Taylorville, Bartholomew County, but has been in this city over a year, part of the time employed at the Orphan Asylum. She had given birth to a mulatto child two weeks previous to her death. A sister of the deceased is employed as a domestic at the residence of "Squire Pease," and her parents live at Taylorville.

After some inquiry Coroner Stratford found John Cockerell, the father of the child. This fellow testified that he had only known the deceased a short time, and first met her in Edinburg; had heard she had a sister here, but did not know if it was true.
Afterward he admitted that almost his entire testimony was false, and he then made another statement under oath, in which he said that he first kept company with Mary Saddler when she was employed at the Orphan Asylum. When he learned her condition he left and went to Kentucky, but returned to this city two weeks ago, after an absence of five weeks. He made a statement implicating one H. H. Phinney, colored, who holds out to the world that he is a physician, at 208 Agnes street.

Yesterday afternoon Coroner Stratford, accompanied by Constable Reinhold, went to call on Dr. Phinney. They saw him on a street car about three squares from his office and took him back for an examination.
This man is one of the most ignorant negroes in the city, but his assurance carried him through much better than was expected.
He complained that he was hungry and wanted to go to his dinner, but the Coroner insisted upon his return, and he reluctantly complied with the demand. Three hours were spent in the examination. He stated that the deceased came to him several weeks ago, claiming to be Mary King, and asked him to assist her in her approaching confinement, stating she wanted a place to stay.
Learning that Mr. Cable wanted a domestic, he negotiated with him and succeeded in arranging that the woman was to receive her board and $1 a week until her confinement, when she was to pay $1 for nursing, board and medical attendance. Two weeks ago Phinney took his mother to attend the deceased. The child was born, and under one pretense or another, or possibly for female weaknesses and diseases, and various other troubles. The result was the death of the patient as above related. Dr. Stratford then questioned Phinney as to his knowledge of medicine. He said he began the study of medicine under Dr. Jones, of Louisville, Ky., when he was eleven years old; that afterwards he went with the Doctor to Culpeper Medical College, Virginia, where he finally went through an examination, and although he received 98 per cent he failed to get a certificate. Later on in life he was examined by Dr. Edwards, of this city, and after paying the Doctor $2, received his certificate. He said Mary Saddler had dropsy, with half a dozen complications; that her blood became thick like molasses, and had turned to water; that water interfered with her heart. He located the heart at the base of the breast-bone, and the liver as extending from the collar-bone to the third or fourth rib from the bottom. He had given her liniment of life root and green root, and other similar medicines. His check carried him through, and he never hesitated for an answer.

When Dr. Stratford had concluded the examination, which occupies fifteen pages of legal cap, Constable Reinhold took Phinney to Squire Pease's office, where Cockerell made an affidavit charging him with the use of drugs and medicines and criminal practice, and both were then taken to jail, Cockerell being held on a charge of perjury.
Squire Pease telegraphed to the father of the dead woman, and he will be here this morning. A post mortem examination will be held at Kregelo & Whitsett's, conducted by Coroner Stratford.

THE RAILWAYS.
The St. Paul, Minneapolis and Manitoba emigration officials state that they sold more land during January and February of this year than they did during the same time last year, and note this as an indication for a heavy emigration to the Northwest this season.

C. F. Adams, Jr., is advertising for Union Pacific proxies against the annual meeting March 25, and says: "Stockholders dissatisfied with members of the present directors can state their grievances orally to Mr. A. J.
Adams, with the assurance that they will receive just consideration at his hands."

The East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia system and the Nashville and Chattanooga Railroad have begun the skirmish of another bitter rate war. The two companies engaged in a war during the early winter months and passenger rates were cut to $2 from Memphis to Chattanooga. The matter was amicably adjusted, but three weeks ago a new rouble arose between the two roads.

Commissioner Midgley has called meeting of the Pacific Coast and Colorado Associations, to be held in his office next Wednesday, to take final action regarding the arrangement he has made with the Transcontinental Association changing the present system of making through rates from points in the East to the Pacific coast. Mr. Fairthorn, Mr. Midgley's chief assistant, is now in Omaha preparing new traffic in accordance with the new agreement.

The earnings of the Alton Road are again slightly on the increase. From February 24 to 28 the company earned $118,651.75, against $117,345.28 in 1884, an increase of $1,306.47. During the month of February the earnings aggregated $535,396.36 against $573-384.23 last year, a decrease of $37,987.87.
From January 1 to February 28 the earnings were as follows: Passenger, $278,159.92; freight, $845,631.86; mail, etc., $56,000.00; a total of $1,179,792.78, against $1,239,929.05 in 1884, a decrease of $60,136.27.

Bill Passes the House.

The House Passes the Bill Allowing Mrs.
Edwin May $10,000.

The Governor Will Issue His Proclamation for an Extra Session To Day.

A Special State House Fund Committee Asks an Appropriation of $450,000 for the Work.

An effort to call up the Knightsdown House bill was made in the House Saturday afternoon, but resulted in failure.

As a committee of the whole, the Senate considered the Drainage bill on Saturday, rose, reported progress and asked leave to sit again to day. The leave was granted.

The Committee on Mileage and Accounts reported Saturday in favor of paying $132.10 as witness fees in the investigation of the claim of John Martin. The report was adopted.

The Senate Appellate Court bill, providing for the division of the State as at present into three districts, three Judges to be elected from each, was defeated in the House by a vote of 42 to 41.

The cost of telegraphing the congratulations of the Senate to President Cleveland was $2.25, the bill being presented to the Senate. Objection being made to its payment, Senator May paid the amount.

Mr. Williams' resolution, proposing a constitutional amendment increasing the regular session of the Legislature to 100 days and special sessions to fifty days, was indefinitely postponed in the Senate by a vote of 28 to 15.

The House again refused to take up the Appropriation bill on Saturday, and made special orders for to day. The members generally regarded an extra session as certain, and did not appear in any hurry to dispose of the bill.

The claim of Mrs. Edwin May came up on its final reading Saturday afternoon. Nearly all the members who voted "no" explained their votes at considerable length, and much time was consumed in this way. The bill passed by a vote of 53 to 42.

Senators Hillgrass, May and Nail have notified the special committee appointed to investigate certain alleged irregularities of Assistant Secretary Hulsebatter, that they have been charged respectively with $20, $50 and $50 more than they have drawn.

The special committee appointed to investigate the condition of the State House fund reported Saturday, saying that if a special appropriation were not made the work would have to stop. The committee recommended the passage of a bill authorizing a loan of $400,000 to finish the building and supply it with furniture.

The recommendation of the Committee on Mileage and Accounts to pay the Doorkeeper $110 for serving witnesses to appear before McCook's Inquest Committee, provoked a bitter discussion. Mr. Reeves said that the State paid the Doorkeeper $8 per day, and was certainly entitled to his services without extra pay. The resolution to pay the amount was defeated.

Governor Gray was seen at the Bates House by a Sentinel reporter last evening, and when asked whether or not he would call an extra session replied in the affirmative, saying that the proclamation would be issued to-day. The law-makers may, if they are so disposed, remain in session for days, but the impression prevails that they will adjourn in a couple of weeks.

The law to prohibit aliens from acquiring and holding real estate in Indiana was enacted Saturday afternoon. The Senate bill was substituted for that coming from the House, the only difference between the two being that the first mentioned protects aliens in the rights they have acquired or may acquire by inheritance, and gives them five years to dispose of their land. The House concurred in the action of the Senate.

The House on Saturday afternoon passed Senator Thompson's Civil Rights bill by a unanimous vote. It grants the colored people equal school privileges with whites and removes all distinctions of race and color in existing statutes. It is substantially the same as the bill of Representative Townsend, which was defeated, except that it does not repeal the law prohibiting amalgamation.
Nearly every member on the floor explained his vote, and asserted that it gave him pleasure in promoting the welfare of the colored people.

Bills have been signed by the Governor as follows: Authorizing County Commissioners to construct, in lieu of bridges, free turnpikes not more than five miles long, and, when the cost of bridges in cities and towns shall be greater than $500, to construct them at the expense of the county; fixing the time of the Circuit Court in the District composed of DeKalb, Steuben and Noble; legalizing certain acts of notaries done after the expiration of their commissions; authorizing the City Council to enter or ordinate requiring contractors to receipt records within thirty days; appropriating $1,000 to pay some indebtedness to the estate of Daniel Hough; a joint resolution proposing an amendment to the law for the election of county officers, making their terms of office four years and making them ineligible for re-election.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

The Zoo Theater opens the week to-night with George France in a new sensational drama and a strong olio bill.

The Dime Museum will throw open its doors to the public this afternoon, with the banner show of the season in all departments. No one can afford to miss the Museum this week.

"Hot Stuff, or the Jay and the Jasper," is the latest crazy-quilt title, and it is to be credited to Frank P. Weadon, dramatic editor of the Indianapolis Journal. Any infringement upon the same will be dealt with according to the quinine law of Indiana.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

During his stay in this city, last week, Mr. J. Newton Gotthold secured Mr. Frank Percy Weadon's new society drama, entitled "Mother and Daughter," in which he proposes to star. The piece is said to be the most symmetrical in construction and development of anything the young author has yet produced. Mr. Gotthold was very much pleased with it. The motif is a daughter's love and devotion. She follows her everywhere; does everything she does; in fact, is her counterpart in all the vicissitudes of life. The idea is a practical one, and Mr. Weadon has worked it for all it is worth.

Old boy "Summer Season," (George W.
June) since he tied up to "Three Wives," is becoming rapidly frosted. It is said that the life is killing him, and he now knows how to sympathize with Charley Wing when he was blessed with his "Hundred Wives" Combination. George contemplates an Indiana divorce in the near future, as trigamy is about too many. Poor fellow, how he must suffer!—Cincinnati Enquirer.

To-night, at the Grand Opera House, Charles H. Hoyt's funniest and best farcical comedy, "A Rag Baby," will open a return engagement of three nights and Wednesday matinee. The play has been the laughing success of the season, everywhere playing to the capacity of the largest theaters. The cast embraces all the old favorites—Frank Daniels, Charles Drew, Bessie Sanson, Louise Elsing, the three tramps, four pretty girls, the dog, and the policeman. See it, and laugh as you never laughed before.

Charlotte Thompson opens a week's engagement to-night at English's in the new version of "Jane Eyre." She is ably supported by Mr. Charles Craig, as capable an actor as ever trod the boards. There are but few of our readers who have not read the story of "Jane Eyre," or seen it produced in a dramatized form. The scenic effects produced in the play are grand, vivid and beautiful conceptions of the stage carpenter and painter, one scene in particular—that of the "Red" in "Lord Rochester's" bed chamber—is so realistic as to cause a shudder of horror to run through the audience, and a sigh of relief escapes them when it gradually dawns on their senses that it is but a counterfeit, not a genuine catastrophe, they have just witnessed.

The Hanlon Bros.' great spectacular pantomime, "Fantasma," which comes here the last part of the week, did the largest business in Cincinnati, last week, of any attraction that has played there this season, and both press and public went wild about it. The Commercial Gazette said yesterday:
"To this 'Fantasma' we have witnessed the culminating glories of modern pantomime.
The Hanlon Bros. are the incarnation of pantomime art, and in this, their latest production, they seem to have reached that point where genius culminates. To describe 'Fantasma' would be impossible—it must be seen. To the people of Louisville and Indianapolis we can commend it as the very best thing they are likely to see in many seasons yet to come."

The City Law Makers.
There will be a meeting of the Council and Board of Aldermen to night. The latter body will hold a regular session, while the former meets for the express purpose of considering the City Hall and Market-house ordinance. It is not probable that there will be much opposition to this ordinance, although several members are not kindly disposed toward that clause which provides for a Citizens' Committee to act with the Mayor, Council and Aldermanic Committees.
